The Kane Street Early Childhood Center is affiliated with Kane Street Synagogue, a synagogue affiliated with the Conservative Movement. The school accepts children of all nationalities, races and creeds and without reference to their parents' religious affiliations; we teach, celebrate and observe the traditional Jewish practices of Shabbat (the Sabbath), Holidays and Kashrut (Jewish Dietary Laws).

Our aim is to provide high-quality, developmentally appropriate childcare that nourishes children spiritually, intellectually and physically.

As per the Department of Health, Kane Street Kids is not authorized to administer medicine to children, and does not do so.

An application fee of $50 should be attached to this application. Please mail your application with a check made out to Kane Street Synagogue to:
